Dear Sir -

In reply to your letter of yesterday I shall have great pleasure in acting upon your suggestion, and I am writing Mr Waterston to send a copy of the Sandeman Genealogy for the acceptance of your Library if he has one to spare - Thanking you for reminding me of what I ought to have thought of before, I remain

very truly yours

"Honoured Cousin,

"I received yours and I am satisfied to find that ancient inclination in you, that was esteemed amongst all nations evin in the Jewesh families, and as I hate rediculus vanitie, so I love that men class themselves, as fare as writ or true tradition, can bring them."

NATIONAL LIBRARY OF SCOTLAND

INTRODUCTION.

The plan of this Genealogy is believed to be unique, and the invention of the original compiler, Mr David Peat, late of Perth, a descendant in the fourth generation of David Sandeman and Margaret Ramsay. It has the advantage of ready reference in the book form. On every page the descent of each name from the head of the family can be clearly understood by reading from the one column of generation to the other. Thus, on page 35, we read that Sir Robert Groves Sandeman was the second child of Major-General R. T. Sandeman, who was the seventh child of William Sandeman, who was the fifth child of the second marriage of Thomas Sandeman, who was the twelfth child of David Sandeman and Margaret Ramsay.

The embellishments of this volume consist of the Arms of William Sandeman of Luncarty, opposite the title-page; the plain Sandeman Shield on the title-page; the ex libris label of Albert George Sandeman, Esq., Governor of the Bank of England, opposite the commencement of the Index; and the ex libris label of Lieut.-Colonel John Glas Sandeman at the end of the Index. The abstract Sandeman Coat of Arms is tooled on the binding of the volume.

William Sandeman of Luncarty, in the county of Perth, recorded his Arms in the Public Register of all Arms and Bearings in Scotland on the 18th day of April 1780. Argent—The emblem of Truth, a naked woman standing on a terrestrial globe, issuing out of the base; in her dexter hand an open book; in her sinister, which is elevated above her head, a branch of palm; on her breast the sun in its splendour, all proper, and a veil round her middle of the first within a bordure azure charged with ~~five~~ six mullets or.

The same Coat of Arms, with variation of the cadency bordure, has since been registered by four members of the family.

There is no evidence of any Coat of Arms being borne by the family previous to this registration by William Sandeman of Luncarty. There is every likelihood that this Coat was a design of his own, in which he was probably helped by his son-in-law, Robert Boswell, W.S., Edinburgh, who was then Lyon Clerk. Both were enthusiastic followers of Mr John Glas in his religious views, and the symbols of the Coat strongly express the Divine Truth as set forth in his writings.

The Crest is the Rock—the Truth as confessed by the Apostle Peter. The naked female figure is the conventional symbol of Truth, but the Truth here represented conveys the Palm branch of Peace to the earth upon which she stands; she has the "Word" in her hand open, and the light of the Gospel of the sun of Righteousness shining in all its glory on her breast (2 Cor. iv. 5-6). Her white veil may represent the white garment of Righteousness, and the stars or mullets in the blue bordure probably refer to Him who is "the bright and morning star." So that the Arms stand as a Confession of Faith, while the motto may be freely translated "The Truth formerly testified by the blood of Christ is now testified by the sincerity of those who believe."

Since the issue of the Genealogy in the "Clan" Magazine, the following corrections have been found necessary:—

Page 24.—In the family of Imrie Bell and Jane Walker the 5th name should be Helena Elizabeth; the 6th Henry Alexander, while Eva and Alfred are the 7th and 8th of the family.

Also, on page 24 the 7th of James T. Walker's family should be named Janette Cheveria Hamilton Walker.

The Sandeman Genealogy.

A Genealogical Tree of the Sandeman Family and their descendants, compiled by John Glas Sandeman from Notes, Memoranda, and the Original Tree by David Peat dated 1870, brought up to the year 1894, so far as known, of those bearing the name of Sandeman.

The Family is now in its Tenth Generation, but so far as now known the present representatives are all descended from the second marriage of David Sandeman, who married Margaret Ramsay in the year 1716. For convenience of reference, they are here arranged in seven columns, representing the seven generations succeeding him.

JOHN SANDEMAN, a native of Alyth, married Margaret A. Smith on the 23rd of November 1628. Their son was David Sandeman of Piteraird, near Alyth, and his son was David Sandeman,* who settled in Perth, born 13th April 1681; married (1st), 1708, Grizzel, daughter of Thomas Eason, Writer, of Crieff, sometime in Strathmiglo, thereafter in Glentarkie. Their family was—

1							Thomas Sandeman, b. 26th July 1709.
2							Ann Sandeman, b. 15th Jan. 1711; m. Thomas Jamieson, dyer, Perth.
3							William Sandeman, b. 29th Dec. 1711.
4							David Sandeman, b. 24th March 1713.
							DAVID SANDEMAN, of the third generation, as above, m. (2nd), 1716, Margaret Ramsay, daughter of David Ramsay, Esq. of Baldine, Fifeshire. Their descendants are—
1							Catherine Sandeman, b. 4th Feb. 1717; d. 21st March 1797; m., 28th April 1738, John Anderson, merchant, Perth.
	1						David Anderson, b. 1739.
